FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HAMILTON – Rohin Kurian Wins Tandia’s 4th Annual GEM Employee Recognition Award

Congratulations to Rohin Kurian, Tandia’s System Administrator, for winning the 2017 GEM Award. Rohin was presented with his well-deserved award at an annual Staff Appreciation dinner held on Wednesday May 24th at the Burlington Convention Centre.

The GEM Award Program recognizes staff members who demonstrate behaviors that consistently go above and beyond their day-to-day job duties and ‘Go the Extra Mile’. Our GEM employees demonstrate:

- Professionalism, integrity and knowledge in their ability to perform their jobs;
- Progressiveness in the way they go about striving to gain efficiencies that save time and money;
- Inspiration for their commitment to Tandia initiatives as well as their own community involvement.

President & CEO Richard Davies presented Rohin with his award and shared, “Rohin is known as someone who does his job with a tremendous amount of energy and a wonderfully positive attitude. He is dependable and does whatever it takes to get the job done, and does so with a welcoming sense of humour”.

Sincere congratulations are extended to Rohin for this well-deserved recognition.
